Napoleon's Russland-Feldzug

Hannibal's Weg über die Alpen

Figurative Map of the successive losses in men of the army that Hannibal led from Spain to Italy while crossing the Gauls (according to Polybius).
 Drawn up by M. Minard, Inspector General of Bridges and Roads in retirement.
 Paris, November 20, 1869.

Legend.
 The numbers of men remaining with Hannibal are represented by the width of the colored zones at a rate of one millimeter for ten thousand men; they are further written across the zones.
 There is no final opinion on the point where Hannibal crossed the Alps; I have adopted that of Larosa without pretending to justify it.
